Anderson Announces Y. W. Candidates For Positions

Know Your Candidates

Vice-Presy Nominees

Candidates for the vice-presidency of Y. W. are Hilda Crisman, Virginia Lamberth, and Jeanne Tillery.

Hilda Crisman—Hilda Crisman, tall and efficient, brings to her nomination for the vice-presidency of Y two years of excellent work on Cabinet. As a sophomore she was chairman of the Library Committee and now, a junior, she is in charge of the Finance Committee, candy sales, Christmas cards, and the like.

Hilda is from Roanoke, Virginia, rooms in Ball 204, and holds Y as one of her primary interests on the Hill. She was a nominee for the presidency of Y.

Virginia Lamberth—Virginia Lamberth, also a junior and Hilda's roommate, hails from Gloucester, Virginia. She has been a member of Y during her three years here and has been this year a member of the Senior Commission.

Virginia would be a comparative newcomer to the Cabinet, but is able and dependable in all the work she does. She has worked with the Campus Chest and will carry on (with others) in that project next year.

A nominee for vice-president, she all but campaigns for Roommate Hilda—and that's what we term unselfish.

Jeanne Tillery—Jeanne Tillery, a sophomore, has been Chairman of the Vespers Committee on Campus this year. In that capacity she has had charge of Vespers-in-your-dorm on Thursday nights. Jeanne is from Hampton, Virginia, recalls leadership experience in high school there, and was nominated for Y president.

Black hair, dark eyes, and a lively disposition mark Jeanne's distinctive appearance and personality. She lives in Virginia 315.

Nominees for Secretary

Frances Adair and Dorothy Potts have been named candidates for the position as secretary of Y. W. C. A. Duties include anything from wielding a pen to painting scenery for the Y Benefit.

Frances Adair—Frances Adair has proved her ability for organization and leadership in the two years she has been on campus, and she has proved her ability to scrub floors and keep up with odds and ends in her year as Property.

Mim Riggs Captures Y. W. Prexy Vote

"I really should have an interest," said Mim Riggs, newly-elected president of Y. W. C. A., running her hands perplexedly through her curly brown hair, as she attempted to answer some questions for the information of The Bulletin readers. With the help of roommates, suitmates, and the half dozen other people who kept dropping in, Mim tried her best to "tell all."

Miriam Riggs, Richmond, Virginia, sophomore—that's the way she appears on M. W. C. records. Her major is commerce; her ambition is to be a secretary; and, she adds, "I want to have 12 children—some day."

To return to those interests, Mim "loves dolls" and "Y. W., of course." Among her other favorite subjects seems to be a certain Bob. Mim didn't volunteer this information, but she didn't try to suppress it, either.

Mim is experienced in Y work. She served as treasurer of Freshman Commission last year, and this year she has been a member of Y Cabinet, acting as chairman of the Association Committee.

Other campus organizations to which she belongs are the Wesley Foundation and The Bulletin staff. Mim sighs regretfully, "I'm really a very uninteresting person," but those who are familiar with her friendly smile and her vivacious manner of speaking are likely to disagree.

hart, Joan Rosenthal.

Fire Commander—Tony Campbell, Sue Fuss, Arlene Smith.

Vote—Election Day—Tuesday.

Candidate for Y. W.

Posts

Vice-President—Hilda Crisman, Virginia Lamberth, Jeanne Tillery.

Secretary—Frances Adair, Dorothy Potts.

Treasurer—Margaret Crickenberger, Anita Spivey.

Commission Advisor—Betty Atkins, Bonnie Gallimore.

JUNE ELLEN MINNERLY

Students Elect Minnerly Leader

At an election held by the student body on February 2, June Ellen Minnerly was elected Student Government President for the session of 1944-45.

June Ellen, a native of Johnson City, New York, is respected by all on campus for her perfect poise, and greatly loved for that impish personality and that devilish gleam in her eyes.

Many teasingly say that her "big sister" certainly brought her up just right as an M. W. C. student, but now that June Ellen has passed the twenty-first year mark she can claim to be independent. However, June Ellen is quite active on campus as a member of Cotillion Club, secretary of the Methodist Wesley Foundation, and has just completed a term as treasurer of Y. W. June Ellen loves poetry and good music. We all know how beautifully she plays the piano and have seen her in the college orchestra playing the flute.

Like all of us, June Ellen has an interest—hers is a very decided interest in the Navy Air Corps. But we know that June Ellen's definite interests will be in successfully fulfilling the task that the student body has entrusted to her, and we'll be backing her 100 per cent!

Bulletin:

Saturday the State Senate of Virginia passed without discussion and opposition the McCue-Randolph bill which provides for the merger of Mary Washington College with the University of Virginia.

The bill was sent to Governor Darden and is now awaiting his signature. Under terms of the bill, Mary Washington will become a liberal arts college for women and will be placed under the jurisdiction of the university's board of visitors.

The bill will become effective 90 days after the General Assembly ends or about the middle of June. At that time Dr. J. L. Newcomb, university president will become chancellor of the college.

Dr. Morgan L. Combs will remain as president of Mary Washington.

Candidates For Major Student Offices Interviewed By Bulletin

Tuesday, February 15 is the day to drop by the cross-halls of Virginia to cast a vote for the major officers on campus for the coming session. Chapel tomorrow will be given over to Student Government for rally purposes.

Hurley Named To Head A. A.

Ruth Hurley, newly-elected president of the Athletic Association, hails from Macon, Georgia, "right in the heart of 'Gawgia,'" as she puts it. She is—she says, hesitatingly—a junior (explanation: she came to summer school).

Tall, chestnut-haired, and possessed of blue-green eyes which may best be termed "disturbing," Ruth seems enthusiastic about

A member of the executive committee of German Club, she also belongs to Alpha Tau Phi, Alpha Phi Sigma, Y Choir, and the Victory Chorus. Besides all this, Grace represents the junior class in Student Government.

A music major, Grace's heart really belongs to the Air Corps. Says a friend, "Grace is very fond of music, too, but not just for music's sake." Wonder what she means?

Gloria Post—When your reporter finally caught up with Gloria Post, it was over a heap of tin cans out in Madison Hall where Gloria is the House President. Above the clatter that only tin cans can make, it finally developed that this candidate for the vice-presidency of Student Government came all the way from Kingston, New York, to get her "larmin'!"

Gloria evidently gets around, too, for she is president of Athenaeum, works on the Red Cross Executive Committee, is a member of Alpha Phi Sigma and of the Mary Washington Players.

According to what her suitmates tell us Gloria is addicted to hearing things outside her window at night. Her chief interests in life are eating and George. She wouldn't tell us what her ma-

"Boogie-Woogie" Theme Of Coming Modern Dance Convo

Your reporter wondered what she'd stumble upon Wednesday afternoon as the soothing strains of "boogie-woogie" hit her smack in the face from the gym balcony. "Pardon me, gals, sorry to have crashed your jam session."

"Oh, no,—practice for the Modern Dance convo next Wednesday night," they answered.

Thought your reporter to herself, "Well, if this is what it's going to be like, more people ought to know about it." So she sat in on the performance without further hesitation. It must be admitted that at first the thing was altogether perplexing—everybody seemed to be doing something different. But after someone explained that "this program is going to be different from anything you ever saw before," we decided to sit back and enjoy ourselves—and to be prepared for "anything."

From our vantage point in the balcony the scene below looked and sounded like this:

"Too fast! Too slow." "No, just right; go through it once more." (The last from Mrs. Andrews.) All this as three blue-clad figures finished a lively dance they call "Joyful Departure."

"1 - 2 - 3 - 4"—Over in another corner Ann Harris was giving out with "rum-boogie" while three couples went through their paces of what looked a little like "Saturday Night In The College Shoppe." (Wait 'til you see their variation of the jive!) All we can tell you now is that it is a clever number entitled "American Ballet, 1944," and it's good.

Next "Doodle" and her troupe took to the floor with "Confusion" (and we do mean confusion) but it is truly typical of we, the people of a confused age. Incidentally the costumes are a knockout! New ones have been ordered especially for the occasion.

After seeing the other modern dance program and having had explained to us the basic principles of the dance by Mrs. Andrews, the audience had no difficulty in understanding and interpreting these numbers and many others which are on the program. They are all original and the girls have been working day and night to make this a top-notch production. Take it from us, it's gonna be just that! Don't miss convo Wednesday night (February 16).

Anderson Announces
For Positions

Chairman for Y. From shining the Y Room to worrying about stage management of the Y Benefit (plug), Frances flits to her Home Ec work and flies home to Virginia 105 to keep "Dunc" behaving.

Frances has made for herself a real place in Y, as well as in other college activities. Pulaski, Virginia, is her home town.

Dorothy Potts—Over in Ball 105 you'll find a vivacious little junior from Kennett Square, answering to the name "Skip." If it's important and needs a good worker to see it through, the ability such as Dorothy Potts possesses usually comes to the rescue.

This year she has devoted her time and energies acting as Chairman of the Campus Social Service Committee for Y. W. C. A., an organization of which she has been a member since coming to M. W. C., and filling the position of vice-president of the Junior Class. With her friendly smile and a helpful attitude plus her qualifications beforementioned the secretaryship of Y. M. C. W. might well advance in the hands of this capable miss.

YW Treasurer Candidates

Anita Spivey—Anita Spivey, who is from Suffolk, Virginia, is a member of the sophomore class. She lives in Mary Ball 302, is about 5 ft. 4 in., and has black hair. Anita held executive office in high school, writes for the "Bullet," and has been on the Publicity Committee of YWCA for two years. She is taking a course leading to a B. A. degree and is interested in journalism.

Margaret Crickenberger—Margaret Crickenberger is a freshman this year and comes from Arlington, Virginia. She lives in Frances Willard and is vice-president of Freshman Commission. Margaret is a member of Cotillion Club and is majoring in physical education. She promises to be a very active and versatile person.

Frosh Commissioner

Bonnie Gaillmore—Bonnie Gaillmore is enrolled in Dietetics, but she can be found just about anywhere anything musical goes on. A sophomore, Bonnie (some friends term it Bonnie Jeanne) lives in and out of Virginia 115 and heads the Music Committee on Y Cabinet. She's the gal who plays the organ in G. W. Right now her chief headaches are arrangements and practices of Benefits, Y and Soph, respectively.

Pulaski, Virginia, claims this attractive nominee, who has shown her ability to juggle four or five jobs at once, and make them all "harmonize."

Frosh Advisor Candidates

The candidates for the position of Freshman Commission Advisor are Betty Atkins and Bonnie Gaillmore. The duties of this office include working with the new freshmen and helping them to organize into groups under Y. W. The Freshman Commission Advisor lives in Willard with the House President, who is also an upperclassman.

Betty Atkins—Be it class meeting, social function, Y. W. meeting, religious gathering or what not, one girl you're sure to remember as having added to the richness and enjoyment of the hours is Betty Atkins.

She rooms in Virginia, domain of the sophomore, but hails originally from Rocky Mount, N. C. Southern charm and versatility have not escaped this outstanding leader.

Besides acting as secretary of the Sophomore Class she takes an active part in Y. W. C. A., church work, and other campus affairs. In her freshman year she served as secretary of the class and worked on the Devotional Committee of Y, thus qualifying her for the position as Freshman Commission Advisor, 1944-45.

VOTE WISELY!

"The privilege of exercising a free and intelligent vote is, to many in our democracy, like many other parts of our ways of life." ... so has written a college journalist. Here in our country, as long as we know that the privilege is ours, we feel secure.

Only when the privilege hangs in the balance do we as a nation feel its importance and full meaning. Now is a time when we may realize how much the exercise of a free and intelligent vote may mean to our nation in the throes of war.

The time, the place mean little when this American privilege is used as a means of furthering the democratic way of life. The polls concerning the future of a nation at war or the government of a college campus for the coming three quarters stand alike in importance.

February 15 and 16 are election days for Mary Washington. We will choose campus leaders for the coming three quarters and it is imperative that each one of us vote for the officers of our choice.

Free voting is important, for it is one of the corner stones of our government, but intelligent voting will make Mary Washington's 1944-45 leaders the very best.

It is not enough to drop the ballot in the box. Once the returns are counted and the results are posted, it is the duty of every one of us, as members of the student body, to give the newly-elected officers our undivided, individual support.

—J. L. D.

ANNOUNCING TO READERS!

Beginning next week, the readers (?) of The Bullet within it's thrill-packed columns, a new feature—namely—a modified, Mary Washington-ified version of advice-to-the-love-lorn. (The editor protests that the column was brought on because of the fact that she received a number of comic valentines from her students at the high school.) If you have problems (love, algebra, or weight) write a letter to The Bullet and drop it in the Bullet Box just outside of the College Shoppe and our columnist will do her best to out-do Betty Bly, D. D., or M. Haworth.

for is because "nobody would ever vote for me then," but, hint! it begins with L. ....

Jeanette Harrison—This tall, attractive junior is from Nutley, N. J. and claims art as her major. Her activities on campus include Hoof Prints Club, Cavalry Troop, Mary Washington Players, and the Art Club of which she is president.

Treasurer Student Gov't

Kathleen Harrison—Kathleen Harrison from Meadowview, Va., is very well-known to the juniors as the president of their class. While she majors in chemistry, she is also fond of physical education.

Kathleen is a member of Alpha Phi Sigma, Cotillion Club, Science Club, Athletic Association, and YW.

Nominated now for treasurer of Student Government, she wants to work in a chemical laboratory "for awhile" after she graduates from Mary Washington College. She wouldn't tell us what she wants to do after "awhile."

Dorothy Klencz—"Dossie" Klencz is a tall, blond sophomore who has done a lot in campus affairs. She is now a member of Terrapin Club, treasurer of Senior Modern Dance Club, a member of the Bullet staff, and has worked on the Campus Chest. In her freshman year she was representative to Student Government.

Pat Matthewson—Pat is an active member of this year's sophomore class. She is a member of Y. W. C. A., A. A., Cotillion Club, Terrapin, and is co-literary editor of the Battlefield. She was on Freshman Commission and we have seen her in the Beauty Contest this year and last year.

Virginia Gunn—Virginia Gunn, nominated for treasurer of Student Government, is treasurer of the junior class. She is a member of the German Club, Modern Portias, and Y. W., and also the "Apprentice Club," says her roommate.

She comes to us from Richmond, majors in English, and anytime you want to see her over the weekend, you can find her in Ball Parlor entertaining Billy, who, from what we can gather, is president of the "Apprentice Club."

Secretary Student Gov't

Phyllis Plante—A winsome lass From Winston, Mass.

Corny, wasn't it? But it describes Phyllis Plante, candidate for secretary of Student Government. Phyllis majors in commerce, but she also finds time for various other activities around the campus.

Besides being treasurer of the Newman Club, she is also a member of the Mary Washington Players, YW, Sigma Tau Chi, Alpha Phi Sigma, and the Camera Club.

Phyllis is a camera fiend, and here's something else. Now don't tell a soul we told you, but she snores, too. When asked about campaign promises, the candidate would say nothing except that "I'm democratic!"

Janice Worsley—Janice Worsley is a pretty, blond sophomore. She is a member of Alpha Sigma and Sigma Chi, treasurer of the Sophomore class, and a member of Y. W. Devotional Committee. Last year she was Freshman representative to A. A.

Fire Commander

Sue Fuss—Sue Fuss, a member of the Sophomore class, has been nominated for Fire Commander. She belongs to Hoofprints Club, is a member of A. A. Cabin Committee, and is a sergeant in the Cavalry Troop. She is sports loving and active in them. Her favorite activities are dancing in any and all forms, horseback riding, tennis, and swimming. She can probably swing a mean fire bell!

Toni Campbell—Toni Campbell, a tall dark sophomore, is active in Hoofprints Club, Cotillion Club, Y. W. C. A., A. A., and Cavalry Troop. She has been participating in basketball and wants to play on the Virginia Hall team. Toni has been nominated for Fire Commander and if there is a fire hat to wear, she looks good in red!

Arlene Smith—"Snuffy," as she is so well-known, is a junior and a major in Bio-chemistry, from North Andover, Mass. She belongs to Alpha Phi Sigma, Science Club, A. A., Modern Portias, and during the fall was Captain of the Cadet Corps.

Bullet Nominees

Jessie Chatto—Jessie is a dark-haired junior from Wyoming, Delaware, believe it or not. She is a History major with a special interest in ... the Marine Corps (this latter fact was contributed from the sidelines during the interview).

Jessie is a member of the Spanish Club and the Bullet staff. Her wide experience in all fields of reporting has qualified her for nomination for editor-in-chief of The Bullet.

Joan Rosenthal—Joan is a sophomore and a science major from Branford, Conn. She is a third degree member of Alpha Phi Sigma, a member of Mary Washington Players, Junior Modern Dance Club, Y. W. C. A., and is secretary of the Outing Club. This year she is a reporter and proof editor of the Bullet.

Shelley Earhart—Shelley is a sophomore and a science major from Philadelphia, Pa. She is a third degree member of Alpha Phi Sigma, a member of Mary Washington Players, Y. W. C. A., Science Club, and has been news editor of the Bullet for two years. You've probably seen her "juggling" sodas and soup bowls at

When Jane Grey hurt her knee, little did she realize the havoc it would cause in the dining hall kitchen, and the cooperative spirit her temporary disability would inspire. She tried and tried to find a "sub" to wait on her two tables, but when her efforts proved futile, the girls at the table generously offered to wait on the tables themselves, taking turns at each meal and receiving no pecuniary reward. The undertaking proved both humorous and successful. Here are some of the results:

Anna Brauer, braving the first meal, returned to the table quite worn out; perspiration streaming down her face, eyes glazed, and hair drooping, remarking as she sank into the nearest chair, "If Jane ever asks me again if I want any seconds, I'll say, 'Anything, just anything you can find!'"

Flying Trays

The minute these inexperienced but dauntless "subs" stepped into the kitchen with bewildered expressions on their faces, and the ill-fitting uniforms looking more foreign than ever, the regular waitresses had immediately classed them, saying, "Oh, you're subbing for Jane Grey." Whereupon they became very considerate and helpful.

Kilby's turn suggests various pictures to the imaginative individual. We can just see her charging around the kitchen, sliding over milk puddles, and whizzing down the aisles leaving trodden-upon corpses in her wake. Permission has been obtained from said person to quote her: "Quote: I hate those (unquoteable) slippery floors in the kitchen unquote."

Bertha "Mac" McPhail conveys a different kind of spectacle altogether. We see her more as a "lost soul" floundering under a tray piled high with pie, trying to find her way around the dining hall, the girls at the tables waving frantically to let her know where they are and which direction to go.

All this has been quite a novelty to Jane, who undoubtedly enjoyed it. (she is now back on the job according to the latest dispatch) but forgetting herself she would jump up to get more milk.

Offered Job

Aside from all this, everyone was very efficient; Tony Campbell was even offered a regular job. Because of their "Greenness," they even managed to get more food than they might otherwise have gotten.

It was fine for all of them, but they came to one serious conclusion: That all girls ought to wait on tables just once so that they might appreciate their waitresses more, sympathize with what they have to go through, and above all, be more patient.

What these girls did for Jane was a fine thing to do, and showed a quality in them which should be acquired and applauded by all of us.

lunch-time in the "C" Shoppe.

Battlefield Nominees

Mary Lou Conover—Mary Lou is a junior from Verona, N. Y. She is acting president of Alpha Tau Pi and has also been advertising manager of the Battlefield, an apprentice of M. W. Players and on the Y. W. Campus Social Service Committee. Mary Lou is a major in elementary ed.

Mary Ruth Carroll—Mary Ruth Carroll is pretty, blond, and of medium height. She will complete her major in English this year and hopes to have one also in Psychology.

Mary Ruth is from Petersburg, Virginia. She is a member of the French Club, of Alpha Phi Sigma, of Modern Portias, of Y. W., and of the Battlefield staff. Her work on the staff qualifies her well for the position of editor of the Battlefield.

Phyllis Dunbar Becomes Bride

Married In Fredericksburg

The marriage of Miss Phyllis Dunbar, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman G. Dunbar of Elmira Heights, New York, to Lt. John A. Powers, Jr., Army of the United States, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Powers, of Boston, Massachusetts, took place Sunday afternoon in the Presbyterian Church of Fredericksburg. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. V. Lancaster before an altar banked with ferns and white snapdragons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with a high marquisette yoke, trimmed with seed pearls, full train and tight fitted bodice. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias, roses, primroses, and sweetpeas.

Mrs. Louis Ordway, of Elmira Heights, N. Y., sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a gown of pale yellow brocade, fashioned along sweetheart lines and she carried a bouquet of purple iris.

The bride had as her bridesmaids her college roommates, Miss Mae Barnes of Kenbridge, Va., Miss Lucille Neighbors of Saltville, Va., Miss Marjorie Martell of Sutton, Mass., and Miss Ruth Smith of Elmira Heights, N. Y.

MRS. JOHN A. POWERS, JR.

Miss Barnes and Miss Neighbors wore dresses of blue brocade and carried bouquets of yellow snapdragons and Miss Martell and Miss Smith wore dusky rose and carried bouquets of deep rose snapdragons. Their gowns were also fashioned along sweetheart lines.

Lt. Frank Boscoe of Scarsdale, N. Y., now stationed at Fort Banks, Mass., was best man.

Ushers were Dr. Richard H. Bauer, Mr. Fred Miller, Mr. Kenneth Roach, all members of the faculty of Mary Washington College and Mr. Richard Dunbar, brother of the bride.

The bride will be graduated in June from Mary Washington College, where she is secretary of the Student Government Association and a member of Alpha Phi Sigma, national honorary society. Lt. Powers received his B. A. and M. A. degrees from Boston University and is now stationed at Military Government School at Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the Dome Room at Seabrook Hall.

Your Student Government

Editor's Note—This is the fourth in a series of articles on Student Government.

During the past two weeks we have all been signing pledges on our test papers. Every time we sign a pledge on a mid-term or any kind of a test we are accepting a small amount of responsibility for making the test fair. Long after we have finished school, we will continue to sign our names to agreements. We will promise to pay interest on loans, we will promise to pay installments on new radios, will promise to give time and money to charity organizations. All arrangements between people have behind them responsibilities for each person involved.

The honor code which we believe in at Mary Washington College is made up of our individual codes of honor, that is what we believe to be our duty to our neighbor. The only "system" of honor we could have or would want to have is a mutual agreement as to what is to be considered right and wrong.

Hi Frosh!

Ragadrop Recites

"Listen Frosh and you shall hear the weekly tale of Raga—how can I make Ragadrop rhyme with hear?" Any ideas for completing this bit of "blank verse" mail the top of your grocer's head and a package of Makihoggie Gravel-cement to box-0000 Hokipetoki Junction within the next year. The winner will receive "ten silver dollars and two weeks' tickets to next week's production of WHO DONE IT—HE DID?" And now to look around a bit:

A new definition of perpetual motion would be Joyce Sprinkle. I guess we all agree that Jean Kirby can really play a saxophone. Attention Willardites! Every night at 10:15 exercises for making without the hips and waist are rolled out. The girls in 142 Willard really had a MICE time. Timely suggestion: A three credit course to teach the Freshman Class all the words to "Maresi Dots" with Dr. Castle for the Prof. For lessons in how to sink foul shots on the basketball court see Ray Plante; she never seems to miss.

Dottie Sutherland plus a horse equalled troubles and OOOO those bruises! Last week, and it is told that Dottie's Dad became the sweetest of all the girls that met him when he was here. Listen to "Smokey" East sing that ooo-la-la, strictly song of hers called Smokey. Anne Linsley must have a great interest in the U. S. Navy; one look at the cover of her notebook will soon convince you. The initiations for the Hoof-Prints Club certainly caused a mild sensation.

And did'ja know . . . that Jo Packard went straighter than straight home to see George Poo?

. . . that Martha Blake and Bev Wisenfluh were off soon to see their husbands? . . . That Peggy Drummond is wearing a path to the P. O. looking for a letter from Jimmy Barnes? . . . that the mail box is more than overcrowded when Anne Acton receives mail from Lindy? . . . so much at ONE TIME. . . Betty Wyatt (of the Betty Lewis Wyatts) and J. Crabbie are wearing THE diamonds on the third finger of the left hand? . . . That "My Budds" can be heard wherever "Shirts" Stewart goes? . . . Three cheers for the Navy Air Corps. . . . That Ravis McBride fell down and really hurt "her pride"? . . . That George Barnes, the love of Anne Harrison's life, is way overseas in the Marshall Islands? . . . That Anne Bradley is the proud owner of Mac Adams monogram pin? . . . That Anne Lee made with TWO orchids from Sig at V. M. I.? . . . That "Pete" Burnette has definite ideas on "men" in general. . . . That Kitty Revel is just plain happy. . . . That Robbie Carter can solid sound "Boogie Woogie" ala T. D. on the piano. . . . That the local O. C. C. reported an unidentified object flying low in the direction of Conn. IT MUST have been Jean Ewen when she zoomed home to see Dick. . . . That Otre can out eat anybody in BUN DEPARTMENT. . . . That Martha Bellamy & Co. cats lemon pie all the time? . . . that there isn't much more to write about anyone? Well Abah to you until next week,

Ever faithful,
Ragadrop,

Dorothy Ehery, poncho-clad comedienne of Clelio Lindo, made her debut on the Mary Washington College program series when she successfully "stooaged" Dorothy Leonard's burlesque soap opera program, Feb. 2. Mildred Savage was the pianist who gave "like a bird" when Miss Leonard's duet voice enquired, "Just listen to our twitter-pated darling . . ."

Bayonet Nominees

Betty Halfacre—Betty (Pinky, to you) Halfacre is one of those North Carolina "femmes" of North Wilkesboro, to be exact. You saw her in the beauty contest.

Now a candidate for Bayonet editor, "Pinky," a major in commerce, is secretary of the junior class, is member of the Victory Chorus, "Y" Choir and Alpha Phi Sigma.

Today she tells us that she has just returned from midwinters at N. C. State and is badly in need of catching up on her sleep.

Marie Buchanan — "Rickey" Buchanan is a charming junior with dark, naturally curly hair. She hails from down Richmond way and lives now in Custis 109. A science major, she has been nominated for editor of the Bayonet.

"Rickey" has been active in campus affairs. She is a member of the Epaulet staff, Science Club, of Cadet Corps, and is the Cadet Corps representative to the A. A. Council. Her military training qualifies her well to head the Bayonet.

Florence Ann Berry—She is a sophomore, nineteen years of age from Falls Church, Va. She entered M. W. C. in September as a transfer from Barnard College. Her major is chemistry. She is a member of Alpha Phi Sigma, and is assistant director and casting director of The Sophomore Benefit. One of her favorite pastimes is reading poetry.

Pat Griffin—She is a tall, attractive, nineteen-year-old blond from Youngstown, Ohio. Pat is majoring in science with a minor in psychology. This year she is secretary of the Spanish Club while last year she was secretary of Freshman Commission and a member of both the band and the dance band.

"Quality Street" rehearsals, so they tell us are coming right along. Plan now to attend the play March 3.

The Boo-Loo crowd, Betty Lewis to the uninitiated, were featured Thursday on Jean Wilson's premier opus, Jean's script was securely anchored to heavy boards to eliminate that mike-fright rumba which causes announcers to see double. In spite of her formidable professional appearance, Jean completely overlooked the announcement that preceded the cello playing of Elizabeth Krebs, accompanied by Silvia Francis. Boogie Woogie was really beaten out by South Carolina's gift to rhythm, Betty McTeer. Jean Pensen and Irene Taylor presented that all-time favorite "Stormy Weather" while Sally Crowell dreamily read "I Love You" to the accompaniment of "The Moonlight Sonata". A new feature was the reading of a poem in Spanish by petite Iris Reyes Citron from Arecibo, Puerto Rico.

Controlling the "Hour of Charm Orchestra" was a real headache for Harriett Walls. Friday's program under the direction of Mickey Mills failed to hit the air on cue. Frankie wire pulling helped nought. Finally, the wire difficulty was located by the telephone company and "Alice Blue Gown", "Holiday for Strings" and the rest of the program came through in great style.

"Mary Washington College on the Air" now invades the ether via WFVA Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday at 4:15 in the afternoon.

"Aleutian Interlude" was the title Frances McKelvey finally tagged on her Wednesday script. An experienced cast portrayed the Alaskan nurse, who were the characters in the playlet. Harriett Walls, Adrenne Herbert, Hilda Parks, Virginia Morgan, and Betty Cox read the parts. Margaret Hudson and Director McKelvey handled controls.

An original play by Harriett Walls filled the Thursday period. The Walls script eschewed the comical, but really "gave out" with sentiment. A pianist, a pretty young artist, Paris in the spring—all the elements were there! But along come the horrors of war and the gay tunes of the pianist take on grim overtones as he fights to free the world of Nazidom.

VICTORY CHORUS

The Victory Chorus, under the direction of Jayne Anderson, seems to be in the midst of very important rehearsals.

Every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoons at 5 o'clock, Monroe Hall rocks and sways under the vibrating tones which issue from the rehearsal room of this group of 34 Victory Singers.

This quarter the chorus is devoting its time to making of recordings and preparing for public appearances.

However, just when and where the campus will again hear from the Victory Chorus is wrapped in mystery. This information may be released within the next few weeks.

M. W. PLAYERS

The Mary Washington Players have taken as their war project the collection of postage stamps. These stamps are used in making new stamps, and the mulligan, in making wooden legs. Listed below are some important details for contributors to remember:

1. Leave about 1/2 inch margin on paper around all stamps.
2. Do not attempt to pull or wash stamps off paper, envelope or wrapper.
3. Save only perfect stamps. Stamps must be undamaged or torn or have their edges clipped.
4. Do not save stamps which are imprinted on the envelope, as on air mail envelopes.

It only takes a minute to put your stamps into the box in your dorm, and a minute means so little to you, but so very much to "our boys" out there.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA

Alpha Phi Sigma is pleased to announce that Dr. Lucius G. Moffat, professor of romance languages at the University of Virginia will speak here at Mary Washington College on Thursday, February 17 at five o'clock in Monroe Auditorium.

Dr. Moffat is an authority on France and the present difficulties in that country. He has spoken widely on this subject and on the future of that country. He maintains that the importance of France to the western world is so great as to make it imperative that we understand fully conditions there. Alpha Phi Sigma urges that everyone who possibly can hear Dr. Moffat's talk. Faculty members and language students are particularly invited.

Prospective blood donors see Mrs. Bushnell immediately. The date is set for Friday, February 18. Your blood may save a life.

FRESHMEN TROUNCE SOPHS 31-18 AS CLASS GAMES BEGIN

A. A. Ratifies Constitution

The meeting of the A. A. which was held Friday January 28, was called to order by the president, Emmy Lou Kilby. She and the members of the Athletic Council opened the meeting with discussion of the Point System. All the activities of the organization that offer points for participation were brought out by skits. These were: hockey, tennis, golf, basketball, swimming, outing, Cadet Corps, Dance Club, Cavalry Troop, and bowling, as well as committees, which are: Cabin, Publicity, Decoration. These skits added humor as well as giving all the students an idea of what really goes on in the A. A.

The president then read the revised Point System from the constitution and it was moved and seconded that the System be approved as read. In the amendment it is stated that one thousand is the number of points required for an M. W. C. letter. The Constitution will be posted on a bulletin board in Monroe Hall for all members to read.

The meeting was very well conducted and from the crowd at the president's desk after the meeting, there were many new members signed into the A. A. If it's fun, you're looking for, then A. A. seems to be the place for you.

On Thursday night a fast freshman team took to the floor to defeat the sophomores 31 to 18. It was one of the hardest fought games of the current season, with both teams showing skill and a fighting spirit.

At the end of the first half the sophomores were on top by a score of 15 to 13. In the second half the picture changed completely. "Berry" Brall, Freshman class president, ran wild, sinking beautiful shots from all angles. She simply couldn't be stopped, showing amazing accuracy. Plante and Everett also played good games. High scorers for the sophomores were Anne Goodloe and Carolyn Rohr, each making 7 points. Goodloe was especially good on free shots, making 3 in 3 chances. Mills, Holloway, and MacDonald, guards for the sophomores gave the Frosh "a tough time, each playing a sterling game, while Ribet, Baird and Cahoun kept the "Sophs" well in hand. "Berry" Brall led all the forwards by a large margin in goals made, ringing up 21 points for her team.
